get complete pdf at learnexams.com

American Red Cross CPR/AED Exam (New 2023/ 2024 Update) | Graded A | Questions and Verified Answers| 100% Correct

QUESTION

You are providing care to a facility maintenance worker who has fallen off the top of a ladder. The victim is conscious. Which of the following should you do first?
a. Ask the victim what happened when he or she fell.
b. Check the victim's pulse.
c. Obtain consent from the victim to provide care.
d. Question the victim about any complaints of pain.

Answer:
c. Obtain consent from the victim to provide care.

learnexams

QUESTION

For which of the following should you summon EMS personnel?
a. A victim with a minor cut on the forearm that is lightly bleeding
b. A victim with an airway obstruction who is forcefully coughing
c. A victim with intermittent abdominal pressure
d. A victim with an open leg wound with the bone protruding

Answer:
d. A victim with an open leg wound with the bone protruding

LEARNEXAMS.COM

get complete pdf at learnexams.com

QUESTION

You pull an unconscious adult from the water who is taking infrequent gasps. During the primary assessment you find that the victim has a pulse.
Which of the following should you do next?
a. Begin CPR.
b. Check for severe bleeding.
c. Continue to monitor the victim's breathing closely.
d. Give 2 initial ventilations.

Answer:
d. Give 2 initial ventilations.

QUESTION

If there is a risk of the AED pads touching each other, such as with a small child or an infant, you should:
a. Place one pad in the middle of the chest and the other on the back.
b. Place one pad on the stomach and one pad on the chest.
c. Place them as usual. It does not matter if the pads touch each other.
d. Reverse the pads' position on the chest.

learnexams

Answer:
a. Place one pad in the middle of the chest and the other on the back.

QUESTION

You have sized up the scene and determined the scene is safe. When performing a primary assessment, which of the following would you do next?
a. Check for responsiveness.
b. Summon EMS personnel.
c. Open the victim's airway.
d. Check for breathing and a pulse.

LEARNEXAMS.COM